

QUEBEC ARRESTS POLICE AND FIREMEN

Accused of Violating Statute
Which Forbids Strike by Municipal Employees.

QUEBEC, Que., June 28 (United Press).—Striking policemen and firemen were being hunted down and placed under arrest here today. Eight already had been taken into custody, charged with violation of a provincial statute which forbids strikes by municipal employees. Warrants had been issued for twelve more. The writs were being served by constables. Wilfrid Garripy, President of the Firemen's Union, was one of those arrested. He was taken from his home shortly before midnight. The strike began early Sunday when the policemen and firemen refused to accept the award of a wage board, demanding a larger pay increase. Pickpockets flocked to this city to prey on the crowds celebrating the feast of St. John the Baptist and the thousands passing through on pilgrimages to the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. Four men with their pockets filled with jewelry and purses were found by volunteer police.

SAILOR IN FAMILY BATTLE

Carney in Hospital After Sirenous
Welcome by Brothers.

James J. Carney, a marine fireman, returned from a voyage last night and went to No. 543 East 181st Street, where his brothers, Daniel and Walter, and a sister live. They locked the door against him. He broke down the door. The noise he made, followed by two revolver shots after he entered, caused the neighbors to call Policeman Robert Tattall. Tattall found Daniel and Walter sitting on James's chest. James was taken to Fordham Hospital for repairs. He is charged with having a revolver illegally. "It's all in the family," said James.

"BOGEYMAN" SCARE WRECKS CHILD MIND

Medical Aid Fails to Restore to Health Girl Frightened
a Year Ago.

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—Medical aid has failed to restore to health and sanity Agnes Katherine, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes of Milvale. At the age of five, Agnes spoke English, Slavish and Polish, was an accomplished toe dancer and had vocal talent. While eating with her mother less than a year ago, she danced into a dark room. "Don't go into that room, Agnes," warned her husband. "There's a bogeyman under that table." Running from the room, the child fell in a faint. Rapidly she lost the use of her voice, her mental faculties and her limbs, and became blind. After months in hospitals under specialists, Agnes has been brought home with the announcement that there is no cure for the "something" which physicians say resembles a blood clot on the brain.

SAY HE FIRED OWN PLANT.

Philip S. Levine, Lamp Maker, Is Held on Arson Charge.

Philip S. Levine, lamp maker, of No. 211 Stockton Street, Revere, President of the Standard Art Lamp Company, Inc., was held for examination July 6 by Magistrate Short in Bridge Plaza Court today on a charge of arson in the fire at the Lamp Company building in the Fire Marshal's office. Fire started in the plant of the Lamp Company April 22 and did damage of $12,000. Levine was insured for that amount. Benjamin Wolcott, of No. 572 High Street, says he saw Levine pour gasoline over some rubbish shortly before the fire, and that Levine said to him, "I am going to make a fire. You watch out of the window and see if any one is coming." Levine denies the charge.

Really Wonderful with "Sealect"

Make
it with
Milk

AT the first peep of summer weather I take my coffee in a glass with lots of cracked ice. No other drink seems quite so satisfying. But I never knew how delightful Iced Coffee could be until I tried it with "Sealect" Evaporated Milk. I use one quarter "Sealect," the rest coffee with a teaspoon and a half of sugar. Give yourself a treat. Try Iced Coffee with

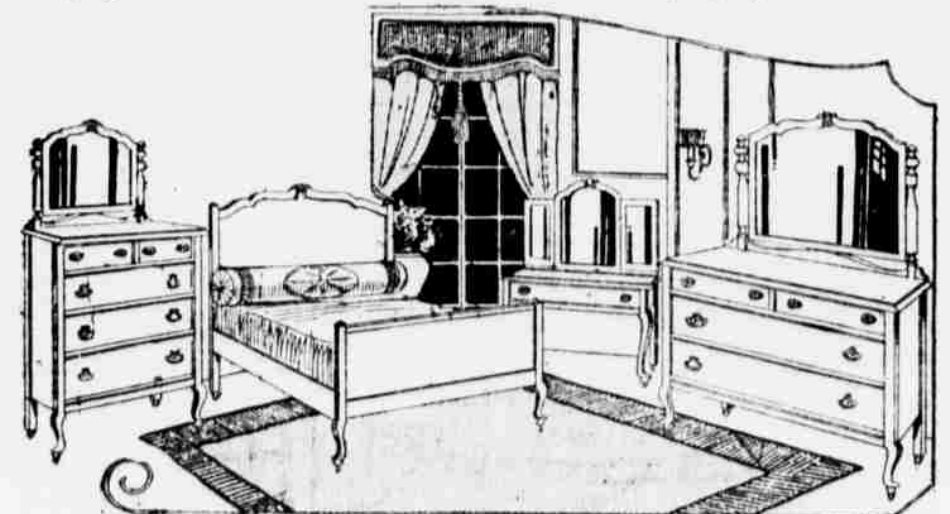

Sheffield
"Sealect"
EVAPORATED
Milk

It not only has fine body and flavor but you know that it is made from good, wholesome milk of the same kind and quality that Sheffield sells every day in bottles. And that means a lot to me."
